1.0 Our Vision

Our school is a happy harmonious learning community where staff and students feel safe and secure. School life is characterised by a calm, business-like environment underpinned by relationships built upon mutual respect. Our expectation is that all students and staff will behave in appropriate and socially acceptable ways. Every member of staff has a key role to play in promoting and sustaining the highest standards of behaviour for learning.

The school and the governors will promote standards of behaviour based on the basic principles of striving, persevering, nurture independence, show respect and demonstrate integrity and tolerance.

All parents are expected to sign a home-school agreement (copy in Appendix A) at the start of each year. If a student joins the school partway through a year, parents will sign it at their entry meeting.

All students will follow our Classroom and Social Routines

Classroom Expectations

We do these to respect others so that teachers teach and learners learn.
It will allow us all to focus, follow instructions and think hard.

When the TEACHER greets you at the door and sets the 'Do-Now' task... You will arrive on time. Greet the Teacher before entering room silently. Unpack equipment before completing the 'Do-Now' Task in silence.	When the TEACHER talks... You will learn best by remaining silent, listening, not interrupting and always tracking the Teacher.	When the TEACHER sets an independent practice task... You will work hard in silence and persevere. Raise your hand if stuck and wait for the teacher to get to you.	When the TEACHER sets a social task... You will listen and participate. You will respect and support classmates when discussing learning.	When the TEACHER finishes the lesson... You will leave the classroom clean and tidy. You will leave silently. You complete your homework to practice your learning in time for next lesson.

Social Expectations

We do these so that we are safe and can all strive to be successful adults.

Staff are trained to make sure that they collectively embody this school culture, upholding the behaviour policy at all times and responding to breaching of the school routines consistently and fairly. Pupils are taught explicitly what good behaviour looks like. Some pupils will need additional support to reach the expected standard of behaviour. Where possible, this support is identified and put in place as soon as possible to avoid routines breaches occurring in the first place.

The routines are taught and revised regularly. Students new to the school are inducted into learning and social routines and re-inducted as necessary. In the case of SEND students, the Team Around The Child (TATC) meetings focus on supporting specific students, particularly those with SEMH issues, to adhere effectively to the behaviour policy. Any changes in the behaviour policy are explained in assemblies at the start of the year, Staff new to the school engage with an induction programme where all routines are explained and demonstrated.

The behaviour policy is communicated to parents and guardians after each update, and the Home School Agreement (see Appendix A) explains the parent or guardian's role within it. The Junior Leadership Team discuss and feed back on aspects of the behaviour policy in their regular meetings.

1.1 Embedding Routines

Gate Duty

The PGO, PM and if available the SLT Year Link meet students on their designated gate each morning. The focus of the 'meet and greet' is to set the standard for positive routines and relationships from the start of the school day. The focus of gate duty is to:

- Welcome students to school, say good morning, smile and insist on the same in return
- Check uniform, taking any students to one side who need to have uniform corrected
- Check that student has a pen / pencil case and that mobile phone is switched off
- Welfare check students

Form Time

Students are taught the Classroom and Social routines as a behaviour curriculum in form time, at regular intervals.

Independence Hour

Years 7-9 engage in a once-a-week independent revision, silent reading and preparation session in the Bistro, to embed good habits.

High expectations

We want students to take pride in their work. We also want them to take responsibility for their progress by working with teachers to improve their knowledge and skills.

- Students must take pride in their work. Their books and folders must not contain any graffiti. Any work that is not well presented should be redone. Any students that do not present their books or folders to a high standard may be asked to re-write their entire work out again neatly.
- Students who have not completed essential work in their exercise books during lessons should be made to do so during unstructured times or as part of Homework.
- Students will be expected to try their best during any assessed tasks and will be required to redo work if their teacher believes that the work falls below what they are capable of completing.
- Students who write in a way that is often hard to read should be coached to perfect their writing. They should be encouraged to slow down the pace of it and it might be necessary to request that a student does not use joined up writing.
- Students must present work extremely neatly at all times and, where possible, underline a date, learning context and finished work.
- Students must always write with a blue or black pen for handwriting purposes unless they have been instructed to use other colours for e.g. when doing peer assessment, self-assessment or acting on feedback.
- students will receive feedback on incorrect spellings. For those students who make a lot of spelling errors, teachers should prioritise the most significant vocabulary. This may include high-frequency words (eg. because, their, where) or important subject-specific vocabulary (government, muscle, sustainability, Renaissance, España).
- Spelling errors should be marked with SP and students should rewrite the word correctly 3 times. Teachers should determine how much support is required with providing the correction.

1.2 The Bedford SPIRIT

The Bedford SPIRIT means to Strive, Persevere, show Independence, Respect and Integrity, while being Tolerant of others. The SPIRIT ethos is taught explicitly in school and the virtues linked to everything the school does. The school seeks to develop young people into individuals who display these virtues as part of their character. See Appendix B 'What SPIRIT means to us' and Appendix C 'SPIRIT award criteria' for further information.

Every half term, at the start of the half term, there will be a focus on redefining the SPIRIT virtues in assemblies and form time, as well as in lessons, and awards will be given for them. HT1 – Strive, HT2 – Persevere, HT3 – Independence, HT4 – Respect, HT5 – Integrity, HT6 – Tolerance.

1.3 Roles and Responsibilities

A list of the staff who have most involvement in school with dealing with behaviour and rewards is included in Appendix I.

Class Teacher

To implement the behaviour policy and a range of rewards and sanctions appropriately and accurately. To phone home when a sanction is imposed. The rationale for this to gain parental support with the full facts behind the incident and how it can be put right to enable the student to get back on track in that lesson.

Form Tutor

To engage in a range of activities, directed by SLT, with forms. To monitor punctuality, attendance, uniform, equipment and offer pastoral support. To build a sense of community and team spirit within the form.

Pastoral Manager

To be the strategic lead on attendance, supporting behaviour and raising achievement in the year group.

PGO

To respond to call outs, establish and monitor supportive Learning Plans put in place for those on their caseload, contact parents regarding serious incidents. To sanction and reward for events in unstructured time.

T&L Leader

To support members of their team and reward/intervene when incidents are escalated, and before they are referred to the pastoral team.

SLT

To act as support the T&L Leader and/or year team to reward/intervene upon referral.

And,

SENDCO

To gatekeep referrals from the form tutor for students whose behaviour may indicate they need support.

PDSO

To provide support with learning, nurture and other systems to support high standards of personal development and behaviour.

2.0 Rewards

We expect our students to self-regulate and be keen to succeed for their own gains. We expect students to value the 'emotional currency' of doing well and receiving praise for it, but rewards for exceeding expectation are given. For every sanction issued there should be at least 9 rewards and this is tracked through the 6-weekly behaviour report. Praise and reward will be used to motivate students and should be used approximately 9 times more frequently than negative consequences. Doing so builds up a culture of achievement and success. Rewards range from teacher praise to more tangible rewards and are given using the professional judgment of staff, though a list of what behaviours to reward are listed in Appendix C. All staff are encouraged to reward good behaviour via SPIRIT points and 'Lead Learner' points. Pastoral Managers will adapt rewards to encourage specific positive behaviours as appropriate. Achievement points are awarded (through Class Charts) through one of the SPIRIT virtues for good work in class, academic progress and contribution to the school community. Once students reach 100 points in each of the SPIRIT virtues, they qualify for a badge corresponding with this area. See Appendix C.

3.0 Sanctions

Teachers have statutory authority to discipline students whose behaviour is unacceptable, who break the school rules or who fail to follow a reasonable instruction (Section 90 and 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006).

This authority also applies to all paid staff (unless the headteacher says otherwise) with responsibility for students, such as teaching assistants.

- Teachers can discipline students at any time the pupil is in school or elsewhere under the charge of a teacher, including on school visits.
- Teachers can also discipline students in certain circumstances when a pupil's misbehaviour occurs outside of school.
- Any teacher has the authority to impose same day detention and these do not require parental consent. See the section on Detentions.
- Teachers can confiscate students' property and search coats, bags etc. It is good practice to do this with the support of a chaperone.

3.1 Consequences for poor behaviour

Teachers can discipline students whose conduct falls below the standard which could reasonably be expected of them. This means that if a student misbehaves, breaks a school rule or fails to follow a reasonable instruction the teacher can impose a sanction on that student.

To be lawful, the sanction (including detentions) must satisfy the following three conditions:

- 1) The decision to punish a student must be made by a paid member of school staff or a member of staff authorised by the headteacher;
- 2) The decision to punish the student and the punishment itself must be made on the school premises or while the student is under the charge of the member of staff; and

3) It must not breach any other legislation (for example in respect of disability, special educational needs, race and other equalities and human rights) and it must be reasonable in all the circumstances.

Bedford High School uses Class Charts as a management system to log behaviour. A detail of sanctions and ranking is on Appendix D. Staff are expected to log within 24 hours of an incident and if intervention from the pastoral team is required, it would be expected that this would be initiated within 24 hours of the log.

3.2 Classroom Practice and sanctions which may be given by any member of Bedford High School staff:

Bedford Classroom Practice

Students who work well in the lesson will be recognized by the teacher. This could involve putting their names written on the board, with the expectation that they receive achievement points during or after the lesson.

Staff should give up to three verbal warnings if a behaviour needs correction. At some point, during the three warnings, it may be necessary to ask the student to move seats.

C1 – CHOICE ‘You now have a choice. I have given you a C1, you now need to...the next time we speak there will be a consequence’

C2 – CHALLENGE ‘There will be a consequence to your behaviour, I will be contacting home today. I want to talk to you about what went wrong today and how we can put it right at <insert time and date>’.

C3 – CONSEQUENCE ‘I’ve given your two previous warnings so you will now be buddied, I’ll call home and arrange a 20-minute detention so that this can be put right for next time.

The teacher calls home and logs ‘phone call home’ on Class Charts and a 20-minute detention.

Whenever support is called for from a PGO or Duty Officer for a student in lessons, the class teacher must always follow with all or some of these actions:

- T&L leader informed and a restorative conversation implemented
- Detention at break, lunch or after school
- An imposition form set for the work missed (see Appendix E)
- A phone call home (essential if the student is ‘buddied’)
- Follow up meeting with the parent

Not all actions will be appropriate to all situations.

If the form tutor notices more sustained problems with a student, they may contact the SEND team for advice. The SEND team will then act as a broker to direct the support to the best place. The SEND team may direct to the student’s needs to be picked up by themselves, or a Pastoral Guidance officer, the Aspirations Centre or another avenue. The SEND and pastoral team engage in a fortnightly meeting to discuss cases.

3.3 Attitude to Learning (ATL) scores

Every lesson, the teacher should access the register on SIMS and should ‘score’ each student for their ATL. They can be helpful to inform on a student’s progress throughout the day. High ATL scores are noted by Pastoral Managers at half termly rewards assemblies. Scores translated below.

	WHAT THIS MEANS	BEHAVIOUR EXAMPLES
1	Student behaviour exceeds expectations	Excellent class involvement and contribution to lesson; supportive of peers; excellent work/extension activities completed
2	Student behaviour is good and meets teachers' expectations	Engaged; fully equipped; good attitude to learning and behaviour meeting Bedford standards
3	Student behaviour has not met all of the teacher's expected standards	Student has had to be reminded on expectations; the teacher may even have moved the student to another space to rectify the behaviour or stop the distraction of others
4	Student behaviour has not met the teacher's standards throughout the lesson	Student has failed to rectify their behaviour despite reminders, encouragement and clear instructions

3.4 Detentions

Staff may issue detentions at break, lunchtime or up to two hours after school without prior notice. Detentions are set by the member of staff most appropriate, so will be given for lack of work if an imposition form has not worked, poor behaviour in a lesson, lack of co-operation with staff etc. Failure to attend is followed up by the classroom teacher and then the T&L Leader. If a student is late to school in the morning, without good reason, they will be placed on break or lunchtime detention that day. Failure to attend results in a detention after school with the Pastoral Manager. The exception to this is where the student has been disrespectful verbally or has walked away from the member of staff. In this case a 'Respect Detention' can be set for Friday afternoon for one hour. If the student repairs the problem with an apology letter before the detention, which must be signed by the member of staff, they may be excused.

The times outside normal school hours when detention can be given (the 'permitted day of detention') include:

- any school day where the pupil does not have permission to be absent;
- weekends - except the weekend preceding or following the half term break; and
- non-teaching days – usually referred to as 'INSET days'.

Other points to note:

- Parental consent is not required for detentions.
- As with any disciplinary penalty a member of staff must act reasonably given all the circumstances, when imposing a detention.
- With lunchtime detentions, staff should allow reasonable time for the student to eat, drink and use the toilet. With breaktime detentions, staff should allow reasonable time for the student to use the toilet.

The outcome of any sanction should include restoring the relationship between the teacher and the student.

3.5 Other Interventions that any member of school staff may implement:

SPRINT

The school runs regular 'SPRINTS' to home in on and provide rapid improvement on one of the routines, eg punctuality, uniform or mobile phones. SPRINT stands for Strive and Persevere, showing Respect and Integrity, as we are Nearly There. On a SPRINT week, students will be collected from lessons (or sent) and will stay for a period of lesson and social time, to reflect. SPRINT climate is monitored, with the numbers and students attending every day. Where a student repeatedly offends, their parents are invited into school to meet with the PGO or PM and an agreed action plan arranged.

Confiscation

Any item which is deemed to be a distraction, could be harmful to self or others, or which contravenes the school's behaviour policy, may be confiscated. This includes, but may not be limited to: drugs, cigarettes, vapes or e-cigs,

weapons,
fireworks,
mobile phones, should a contract be put in place, and it be brought into school

3.6 Mobile Phone and other linked devices

Allowing access to mobile phones and other linked devices in school introduces complexity and risks, including distraction, disruption, bullying and abuse, and can be a detriment to learning. For these reasons, the school prohibits the use of mobile phones, and other linked devices, to reduce these risks. Handheld devices such as mobile phones, tablets and earphones should not be seen, heard or their use suspected in school. Students are discouraged from bringing expensive equipment, such as phones, to school but if they do bring such items in then it is recommended that they are stored securely in bags. Smart watches are permitted but students are not allowed to use these for anything other than checking the time. The school is not liable for loss or damage, while on school site, even if items change hands to a member of staff, having been confiscated. If any of these items are seen by a member of staff they will be confiscated and passed a PGO, who will store in a secured location in the student's file to be returned at the end of the school day if a first offence. Parents will need to come into school to collect equipment if it is confiscated for a second time. On a third offence, a mobile phone contract is triggered and the parent takes responsibility for their child keeping their phone at home.

3.7 Community Service

Any member of school staff may issue a 'community service' type sanction, though the Pastoral Manager should be consulted with first. This kind of sanction may consist of litter picking, tidying classrooms, gardening etc. This kind of sanction is most appropriate for instances of damage to school site, smoking in school or a disregard for the environment, to provide the student with a chance to put right the undesirable behaviour. Community service is arranged between Pastoral Manager.

4.0 Tackling Child on Child Abuse, including Bullying, at Bedford

Abuse between peers and bullying is not tolerated at Bedford High School. The school recognises the extremely detrimental effects that these behaviours can have on young people's lives and takes the issue very seriously. Whatever the motivation of the abuse or bullying, whether related to prejudice, ignorance or a combination of both whatever its character; racial, sexual, religious, appearance related or other and whatever its manifestation; emotional, physical, online bullying or other means, it is unacceptable in our school community. The school seeks to provide a safe and happy learning environment and bullying is clearly counterproductive to this. This anti-bullying policy which forms part of its overall behaviour policy is regularly reviewed. The policy has a disciplinary aspect but also a supportive and pastoral aspect for both perpetrators and victims.

4.1 Definition of Child on Child Abuse

Peer-on-peer abuse includes, but is not limited to:

- physical and sexual abuse
- sexual harassment and violence
- emotional harm
- on and offline bullying
- teenage relationship abuse

It can even include grooming children for sexual and criminal exploitation.

4.2 Types of Bullying

Bullying can happen for a large number of reasons but the most common are listed below:

Homophobic (any incident perceived by the alleged victim or any other person to be targeted around being lesbian, gay or bisexual. People do not have to be lesbian, gay or bisexual to suffer homophobic bullying).

Racist (any incident perceived to be racist by the alleged victim or any other person. Incidents related to religion, culture or those involving students who identify as Gypsy/Roma traveller come under this heading too).

Ableist (behaviour perceived to be insulting to people with a range of medical, mobility, sensory, mental health or learning impairments. Incidents related to other health or Special Educational Needs come under this heading too).

Related to home circumstances (e.g. young carers or children in care)

Sexist (incidents perceived to be demeaning to a gender in general. If unchallenged this can eventually lead to domestic violence).

Sexual (incidents include intrusive language, damage to sexual reputation, inappropriate touching and other behaviour perceived to involve unwanted sexual attention).

Transphobic (incidents are those perceived to be insulting to someone's gender identity or to transgendered people).

4.3 Signs and Symptoms of Child on Child Abuse and Bullying

Signs of bullying can be extremely variable and will very much depend on the individual but some of the more common signs include:

Physical signs e.g. Physical injuries, damaged clothing with no convincing explanation and general ill-health due to stress.

Emotional signs e.g. mood swings, apparent changes in personality, constant anxiety/nervousness, depression or tearfulness for no apparent reason, lack of confidence, negative self-image, hostility and defensiveness.

Behavioural signs e.g. withdrawn, frequent, unexplained absences, poor concentration, eating disorders, alcohol/substance misuse, evidence of self-harming and disruptive/challenging/bullying behaviour.

General e.g. frequently "lose" money/possessions, appears tired and lethargic, avoids entering/ leaving school with others.

4.4 Procedures / responding to bullying accusations and incidents

In the event of bullying the school has the following procedures:

Investigate the situation by talking to all the:

- Children and young people involved
- Witnesses
- Appropriate staff members

Record, in oral, written or picture form, the situation from

- Children and young people involved
- Staff involved
- Witnesses

Respond to the child or young person who is bullied, hurt or upset by:

- Actively listening to their concerns.
- Offering support and strategies to deal with unacceptable behaviour.
- Protecting the child and ensuring their safety as and when necessary.
- Involving parents.
- Involving external agencies to support child as appropriate.

Investigations

The school always seeks to deal with bullying in a robust way, and with sensitivity to the victim. Parents often worry about bullying and can feel 'out of the loop' when their children reach secondary school so the school policy is one of being as open as possible with all stakeholders. When a first bullying incident is reported, the protocol will always be:

1. Interview the victim, assure them that you will help them. Log incident and statements on Class Charts.

Investigating staff to log on the Bullying Overview document.

2. Contact the victim's family to inform them that an allegation has been made and it is being investigated

3. Interview the alleged perpetrator, impressing on them that damage has been done and they may in part or in whole be responsible for that damage

4. Interview any witnesses

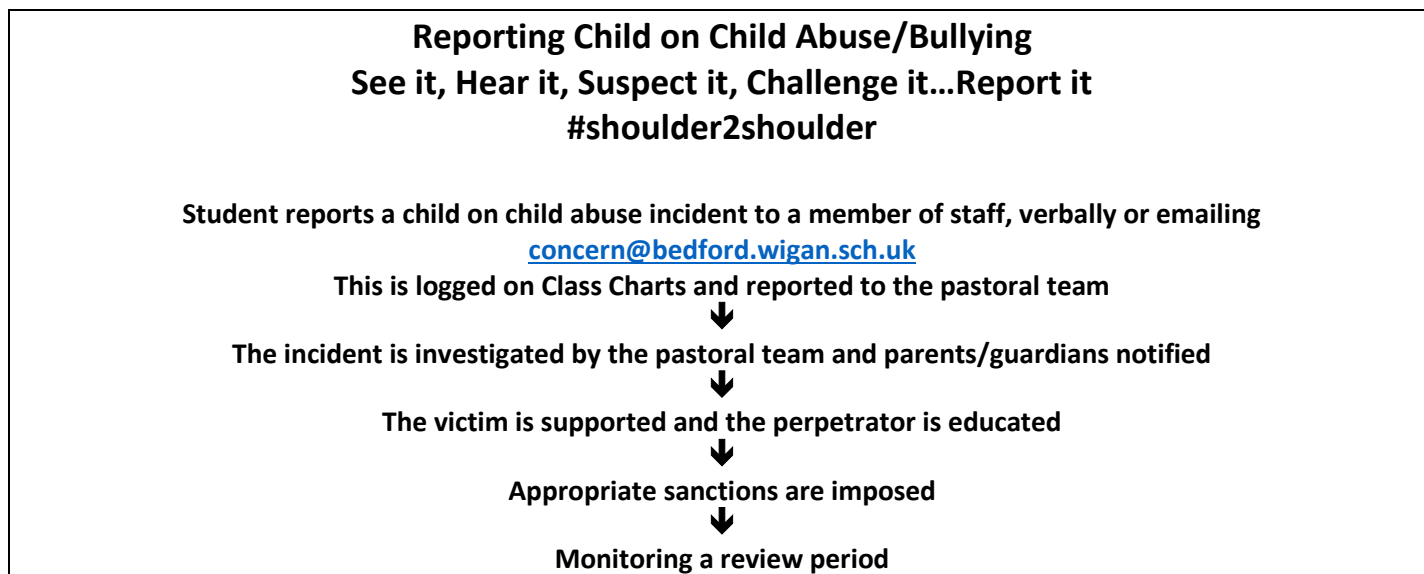

5. Update the families concerned

6. Put in place mediation between victim and perpetrator, overseen by a skilled pastoral colleague

If clear fault is present on one side, the student will receive a sanction. If there is no clear fault, the relationship will be repaired through mediation alone. If there are repeated incidents, either the process is repeated (if no fault) or sanctions are escalated (if clear fault identified), up to a possible permanent exclusion in extreme cases.

7. Investigating staff completes the full log on the Bullying Overview, including parent satisfaction, victim satisfaction and follow-up two weeks later.

The flow chart below shows the process that is used whenever an abuse or bullying incident is reported:

Incidents of bullying with appropriate outcome, actions and sanctions / support are recorded using the online behaviour system which is regularly checked by staff.

Appropriate sanctions are applied in appropriate proportion to the event. These include detentions, time in Inclusion, letters of apology, restorative justice work. In the event of all other avenues being exhausted or in particularly serious cases this may lead to exclusion in line with the DfE Revised Guidance of September 2007, Improving Behaviour and Attendance: Guidance on Exclusion from Schools and Pupil Referral Units, (Section 17) states:

“In cases where a head teacher has permanently excluded a pupil for persistent and defiant misbehaviour (which would include racist or homophobic bullying)...the Secretary of State would not normally expect the governors’ Discipline Committee or an Independent Appeal Panel to reinstate the pupil.”

However, governors would need to examine the evidence that a wide range of strategies had been tried and failed to affect a positive change in the bullying behaviour.

4.5 Bullying of staff by students, parent/guardians or other staff

An incident of this nature would be reported to the headteacher, investigated and appropriate staff suffering from or concerned about bullying can also contact their trade union or professional association for support and advice.

4.6 Incidents on Social Media

While most incidents of poor behaviour between peers occurs off site, the school recognises that communication is usually confined between peers at the same school and ‘fall out’ is often seen in school. This can undermine learning and students’ ability to feel happy or safe at school. The parent remains responsible for incidents outside school, but where a student or parent complains of social media abuse, this will be investigated, and the same process followed. However, the school will also involve parents and support them in fulfilling their role in guiding their child around safer internet use. The school has the authority to sanction pupils when their behaviour online poses a threat or causes harm to another pupil, and/or could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school, when the pupil is identifiable as a member of the school or if the behaviour could adversely affect the reputation of the school.

NB: Most social media sites (Facebook, Messenger, SnapChat, Instagram, TikTok etc) are accessed by apps on mobile phones and providers insist that users should be 13 or over. What's App has a user age of >18. These rules are often overlooked by younger students and this can easily lead problems between peers. As a first action, the school will always advise any parent of an underage child to remove social media until they are old enough.

4.7 Incidents out of school

School staff members have the power to discipline pupils for misbehaving outside the school premises. Sections 90 and 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 say that a school's disciplinary powers can be used to address pupils' conduct when they are not on school premises and are not under the lawful control or charge of a member of school staff, but only if it would be reasonable for the school to regulate pupils' behaviour in those circumstances. This may include bullying incidents occurring anywhere off the school premises, such as on school or public transport, outside the local shops, or in a town or village centre. Where abuse or bullying outside school is reported to school staff, it should be investigated and acted on. The headteacher should also consider whether it is appropriate to notify the police or anti-social behaviour coordinator in their local authority of the action taken against a pupil. If the misbehaviour could be criminal or poses a serious threat to a member of the public, the police should always be informed.

4.8 Involving parents

The parents of the involved parties will be kept informed of investigations and the possible sanctions imposed. Parents will be welcomed into school to discuss the situation with the Pastoral Learning Manager, PGO and / or a senior member of staff, as appropriate.

4.9 Anti-Bullying Complaints

In the first instance, parent/carer should contact their child's Pastoral Manager. This gives parents/carers an opportunity to voice their concerns and gain a resolution early in the process rather than it escalating to more formal concerns.

4.10 Strategies to Reduce Child on Child Abuse and Bullying

The school has adopted a range of strategies to prevent and reduce bullying, to raise awareness of bullying and support victims and those displaying bullying behaviour including:

The support group approach/No Blame Approach

Peer mediation

Peer counselling

Buddy systems

PSHE programme

Self esteem workshops

Restorative approaches

Schemes of work in subject areas

Encouraging students to take responsibility for themselves and others

Providing opportunities for students to discuss bullying and to contribute towards the school action on bullying during:

Form Time

PSHE

Assemblies

Student Voice (the JLT)

Theatre groups

Anti-Bullying Week

Staff should question inappropriate behaviour and reinforce expected behaviour:-

When an incident occurs

At a specific time e.g. form period, assemblies

Through curriculum studies e.g. Citizenship, Expressive Arts, English etc. Curriculum studies should also include programmes that build self-esteem, self-confidence and responsible assertiveness

Staff should provide support and protection for any victim of bullying:-

Identify signals – lateness, 'illness', lost money etc

Interventions – treat seriously and support.

Work out coping strategies and involve the support and inclusion of members of staff

5.0 Homework

Homework not completed or done to the expected standard will lead to intervention as decided by the teacher. See section 1.1 'Embedding Routines' above. The class teacher will log this via Frog. The teacher might decide that a student will benefit from extra time after school to help the student close gaps in their learning. This additional tuition is an opportunity for students to gain extra support and intervention from the teacher. Students will be expected to attend this. An automated text will be sent to parents when a 'failure to complete homework' has been sanctioned.

Homework Club exists to support students in getting into good routines with homework or for those who need somewhere quiet to work. Students can attend voluntarily, or may be referred by a pastoral manager.

Key online resources such as Sparx, Doodle and Frog will often be used to close gaps as part of the intervention.

6.0 Uniform

Uniform will be checked by gate staff each morning. Form tutors will check uniform at the start of the day, once students have arrived in form. If a student is not in the correct uniform, their parents will be contacted. Parents will be asked to bring the missing item to school or authorize their child to return home to collect it. Where parents cannot be contacted then it may be possible for students to borrow the item of uniform from the school. If this is not possible, they will be held in inclusion until a parent can rectify the problem. For further details, please refer to the uniform policy.

7.0 The Aspirations Centre

The Aspirations Centre and Personal Development Support Officer team supports students, alongside the SEND team, with SEMH. Students are referred through the SLT in liaison with SEND and the AC manager. Depending on the needs of student, they may be supported through:

Nurture groups

Internal respite placements

Alternative off-site provision

Recognised programmes such as Zones of Regulation, Talkabout for Teenagers or Cognitive Behavioural Therapy.

All students who receive support from the AC access the All About Me questionnaire at the start of their intervention, and the effects of work are measured after 6 weeks. Interventions are reviewed through Provision Map.

8.0. Inclusion

Inclusion is usually reserved for students who commit a severe breach of the code of conduct or for persistent refusal to co-operate. Other cases can be admitted at the headteacher or deputy headteacher's discretion. It is used only as an alternative to exclusion and students are booked in advance to complete restorative and academic work. Students spend a proportion of the school day, to include some social time OR a 3.30pm finish in a room with a member of staff who extensively tests their learning before they go back to lessons (does this happen, or is this planned for this year? . If any inclusion placement is 'failed', the student will be directed off site to complete the placement at another school or suspended. They will be expected to complete restorative work that reflects on the incident and encourages them to take responsibility for improving the situation and their behaviour. Parents will be informed of the inclusion and will in repeat cases need to attend a meeting with the SLT year link to discuss the incident. The school regularly analyses data on students accessing Inclusion in order to interrogate repeat patterns and the effectiveness of the use of removal. Data-based decisions are made to consider whether frequently removed pupils may benefit from additional and alternative approaches such as a pastoral review or investigation by the SENDCO, or whether specific departments or teachers may require more support.

9.0 Monitoring Reports

Post-Suspension Report

Whenever a student is suspended, they complete a three-day routines report to help them get back into the routine of reaching expectations. They report to the member of staff who conducted the meeting for three days post-return meeting.

PGO/PM Report

For a longer period of reset, a two-week PGO/PM report can be instigated. PGO report should be for behaviour, PM for attendance/raising achievement, but there may at times be an overlap.

ABC (Acceptable Behaviour Contract – Appendix G)

If a student reaches 3 or more inclusions in any year, has persistent suspensions or accrues a high number of behaviour points, an ABC, which imposes a 4-week monitoring period, is triggered. This takes place at a headteacher panel meeting with the year team and headteacher. The contract is set up with parents and focuses on a benchmark of expectation. The ABC is not personalised, but a set of 6 expectations that all students are expected to follow. The intention is to keep things simple and achievable but to gain speedy results. During the 4-week period, student and Pastoral Manager must meet to review progress towards meeting these targets.

GPA (Governor Panel Agreement – Appendix H)

This is similar to an ABC, but usually results when the incident(s) have been severe and the student is at risk of losing their place in school. The GPA is accompanied by the parent's attendance to a governor panel where the incident(s) are discussed. The agreement is monitored for a 4-week period with a view to the student passing the agreement and being discharged. Failure of a GPA will lead to the governors deciding the next steps for the student.

10.0 Suspension

Imposing a suspension means that the student is sent home following a serious breach of the school's behaviour policy. A suspension is time-restricted to between 0.5 and 5 days. Prior to a suspension, the student is made aware that their behaviour could result in a suspension, and they are given an opportunity to consider this and respond. Parents will be telephoned and given a full explanation as to why the suspension has been put in place including what bearing the child's reaction had on the outcome.

The school informs the parent or guardian, and:

- If the child is CLA - the VSH
- If the child was CLA – the DSL
- If the child has one – the social worker

The school does not apply 'undue pressure' on a parent to remove their child, as this can represent 'off-rolling'. Off-rolling can constitute:

- Encouraging them to find another school
- Suggesting elective home education

Parents will be expected to come into school and agree targets with the school and student at a return to school meeting with the Pastoral Manager or a member of the Senior Leadership Team. The meeting will analyse the incident and gain a response from student and parent, as well as:

- Check and review what work has been completed while the student has been suspended
- Discuss aspirations and reflect on what support the school can put in place to help the child succeed in reaching these
- Review the student's attendance
- Review what behaviour support the school can put in place
- Review the parent's support for the Home School Agreement

Examples of the types of behaviour which could result in a suspension are: physical violence towards another student, racial, sexual or homophobic harassment, persistent child on child abuse or bullying, theft, graffiti or property damage, swearing at or being abusive towards a member of staff, persistent disruptive behaviour. Excluded students will be given work to complete at home when the exclusion is for five days or less. The work will be submitted to their teacher when the student returns it to school.

The pathways of support for students who are suspended appears in Appendix J.

11.0 Off-Site Direction

Short term

There are two circumstances in which an short off-site direction will be considered:

1. A failed Inclusion (the OSD will typically be between one and five days).
2. A strategy to give the student a longer-term 'circuit-breaker' to help prevent a permanent exclusion.

In the case of (2), this is a formal step in a concerted process for dealing with discipline offences following the use of a wide range of other strategies, including fixed-term exclusion, which have been used without success. An OSD will be considered by and directed by governors.

Ideally, the school will always seek parental support and cooperation for a managed move, however, there are also times where this is not forthcoming. Section 29a of the Education Act 2002 Education and Skills Act 2008 can be used to direct a placement of up to 12 weeks, without the need for parental support, to improve behaviour.

The governing body of a maintained school in England may require any registered pupil to attend at any place outside the school premises for the purpose of receiving educational provision which is intended to improve the behaviour of the pupil.

Managed moves

Typically, this strategy will only be considered when a pupil is at risk of permanent exclusion. The student would remain on the school roll during the prescribed period that the pupil is attending the off-site provision.

Parental consent is not required in order for a school to direct a student off-site under this provision. However, the school will ensure that this is as collaborative a process so far as is reasonably practicable, if this strategy is required.

12.0 Permanent Exclusion

The decision to exclude a student permanently is a serious one. It is an acknowledgement that all available strategies have been exhausted and is used as a last resort. It may also be used where there are exceptional circumstances and it is not appropriate to implement other strategies to deal with a first or 'one off' offence. These might include: serious actual or threatened violence against another student or a member of staff, carrying a weapon, supplying or being in possession of an illegal drug or alcohol, arson.

13.0 Investigating Incidents

Any member of the pastoral team or SLT may investigate an incident, but the correct incident investigation form must be used (see Appendix F). The investigation should canvas statements from the involved parties, witnesses and if necessary, staff. Statements must be passed to the Pastoral Manager or SLT for decision following an investigation.

14.0 Searching for prohibited items

If a member of staff suspects that a student is in possession of a prohibited object the student may be searched, ideally in the company of a chaperone or witness. A prohibited object may include drugs, cigarettes, vapes or e-cigs, weapons, fireworks, a mobile phone that has entered school following a contract being put in place or any item that might cause damage to another person or property. This search should be conducted by the Headteacher or a member of staff authorised by the Headteacher (usually SLT, PGO or Pastoral Manager). This search will be conducted by a member of staff of the same gender as the student and with another adult (where possible of the same gender). Before any search is undertaken consent will be sought from the student. If consent is refused, the student will be asked to give a reason for the refusal and this will be recorded. Where there is suspicion of prohibited items the student may be searched without their consent. When being searched, students cannot be required to remove any clothing other than 'outer clothing' such as a coat or blazer. Searching a student's possessions includes searching a student's goods over which they have or appear to have control such as their school bag. Searches will be conducted in such a manner as to minimise embarrassment or distress.

When items are found they can be confiscated if it is reasonable to do so and they are not allowed under the school rules. It is not necessary to inform parents before or after a search takes place or to seek their consent to search their child. Where objects are found however, the individual student's parents will be contacted when what is found constitutes a significant breach of the school code of conduct and especially where a 'prohibited item' is found. Where a prohibited item is found, a permanent exclusion of the student may be considered.

The legal standpoint on confiscation is as follows:

Schools' general power to discipline enables a member of staff to confiscate, retain or dispose of a pupil's property as a disciplinary penalty, where reasonable to do so. (see Section 91 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006)

15.0 Reasonable Force and Restraint

Members of staff have the power to use reasonable force to prevent pupils committing an offence, injuring themselves or others, or damaging property, and to maintain good order and discipline in the classroom.

Head teachers and authorised school staff may also use such force as is reasonable given the circumstances when conducting a search without consent for knives or weapons, alcohol, illegal drugs, stolen items, tobacco and cigarette papers, vapes, fireworks, pornographic images or articles that have been or could be used to commit an offence or cause harm.

Separate advice is available in 'Use of Reasonable Force – advice for school leaders, staff and governing bodies'.

16.0 The role of the Police

The school makes use of the police service through having a linked police officer and is supported by that named officer who is in regular contact. The officer may meet with students, parents or both in school if they or the school are concerned that they may be at risk (or already are) offending. Parents will usually be contacted before any meeting takes place.

17.0 Beyond the School Gate

Teachers have the power to discipline students for misbehaving outside of the school premises "to such an extent as is reasonable". When non-criminal bad behaviour or bullying is witnessed and reported by staff or a member of the public while the student(s) are off the school premises, it should be dealt with by a senior member of staff and passed to the pastoral team for an appropriate sanction. If necessary, statements or interviews with members of the public will take place.

Staff may discipline student for misbehaviour when the student is:

- taking part in any school-organised or school-related activity or
- travelling to or from school or
- wearing school uniform or
- in some other way identifiable as a student at the school.
- or misbehaviour at any time, whether or not the conditions above apply, that:
- could have repercussions for the orderly running of the school or
- poses a threat to another student or member of the public or
- could adversely affect the reputation of the school.

18.0 Allegations against a member of staff

If a student makes an allegation against any member of staff it will be dealt with under the school's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and Wigan Council's procedures for managing allegations against staff. First and foremost, the school will always seek to safeguard and promote the welfare of our students. In the event of a student making false, malicious or vexatious allegations against staff at school, their behaviour will be dealt with under this policy and repeated behaviour of this nature may risk a permanent exclusion.

19.0 Internal and External Truancy

Students are expected to attend all timetabled lessons on time and must be locatable at all times whilst on the school site. Staff are required to complete registers accurately within 10 minutes of the start of the lesson. Students who are expected to attend the lesson but fail to do so, are marked as 'N' and safeguarding alert sent to the attendance team. Reasonable pastoral checks are then made for the 'missing student'. If missing student cannot be located within 15 minutes, parents/guardians will be informed and asked to contact their child. Following support from parents to locate their child, if they have still not been located, the attendance /pastoral team may report to the police as a missing person. Students who are found to be truanting internally (they are still in school but not in their timetabled lesson) are brought to Inclusion and detained. If this persists, other measures to eradicate truancy will be considered.

If the student fails to arrive at school (and has not been seen by staff), and parents have been unable to locate their child, the parent is expected to report this to the police as a missing person. If a student leaves school during the day without permission (external truancy) the parent is contacted as soon as possible and an appropriate sanction may be put in place.

Further information regarding internal and external truancy is outlined in the Safeguarding Policy.

Appendix A - Home/School Agreement

At Bedford, we believe in effective relationships with parents and guardians. If we work as a team, we create a formula for success! By getting the basics right, we all enable your child to succeed. Please sign our home/school agreement to confirm that you will support us in helping your child every step of the way.

As a student, to give myself and others the best possible chances of learning at Bedford High School, I will:

1. Speak up if I have a concern, understanding that it is my duty to safeguard myself and others.
2. Attend regularly (at least 97% of the time), on time.
3. Be properly equipped for work, with a strong bag carrying all of the equipment from the parent list below.
4. Complete all class work and homework as well as possible, and not disrupt the work of others.
5. Attend form time, engage in tutor activities and participate in our enrichment programme.
6. Follow instructions of staff at all times, first time, every time.
7. Ensure my behaviour is exemplary, and in line with the Bedford SPIRIT, by following the school rules and staff instructions.
8. Value the resources provided to me by using them with care and only in support of my learning.
9. Ensure that my mobile phone or any other smart device is switched off at all times and placed in my bag once I have entered the school site. I will ensure I do not switch the phone on until leave the school site.
10. Be polite, supportive and helpful to others. I will also be kind and respectful, and I will ensure my actions and words do not harm others.
11. Know and understand the school's uniform policy. I will ensure I wear the correct school uniform and wear it appropriately at all times.
12. Ensure my appearance is appropriate for school by not wearing fake tan, make-up, fake lashes or any jewellery that is not permitted in school.
13. Show care, responsibility and respect for our school, its equipment and surroundings at all times by keeping the school free from litter and graffiti and respecting its environment.
14. Make sure that letters and messages given to me are passed on promptly.
15. Maintain high standards of behaviour travelling to and from school.
16. Take advantage of the opportunities provided by the school's programme of after school enrichment activities.

As a Parent/Guardian, to support our child and Bedford, I/we will:

1. Read, understand and support the school's behaviour policy.
2. Understand that schools are busy places and a response to a phone call may not come for 2 working days. Please do not attend school without an appointment and make your child's form tutor the first point of contact.
3. Send my child in to school having had a healthy breakfast and with a bottle of water to drink throughout the day.
4. Support my/our child in doing homework and other opportunities for home-learning.
5. Attend parents evenings and events and other meetings about my/our child's education and progress.
6. Download the Class Charts app, familiarise myself/ourselves with Frog, and make every effort to stay informed about the School.
7. Encourage my child to take part in enrichment activities and other out of classroom opportunities for learning
8. Check the uniform policy (on the school website and sent out in the transition booklet in Year 7) to ensure I understand the expectations on uniform.

9. Encourage my child to leave their phone or device at home, or if my child must have their phone with them, remind them to switch it off before school.
10. Encourage good timekeeping, helping my child to get into good habits to arrive before the start of school at 8.30am.
11. Value good attendance; recognising that anything under 97% should be seen as requiring improvement and that good attendance leads to good progress.
12. Guide your child on child-on-child abuse which includes, but is not limited to: physical and sexual abuse, sexual harassment and violence, emotional harm, on and offline bullying, teenage relationship abuse. Support their understanding that this is behaviour that is repeated, intended to hurt someone either physically or emotionally and often aimed at certain groups, for example because of race, religion, gender or sexual orientation.
13. Help my child copy their timetable into their KO file so they have a permanent record of it and encourage them to keep a spare in case, just in case.
14. Encourage them to work hard in ALL of their lessons, respect silence in lessons, work hard and be an active learner.
15. Get my child used to self-testing; read, cover, copy and repeat.
16. Understand and support that the school will make decisions regarding sanctions for student behaviour that falls short of the school's expectations.
17. Support school with sanctions, especially if this is after school. A united front is the best way forward for your child.
18. Attend meetings at the school about my child when there is attendance, and/or behaviour concerns.
19. Remind your child to show good manners and respect to all members of staff and be a good role model for others.
20. Support my child with homework, helping them to check Frog and plan their evening of work each night.
21. Encourage 30 minutes of reading per night.
22. Help check my child's bag each night to ensure they have their KO file, pens, pencils and other stationery and their PE kit on the right day.
23. Agree a midweek school night? curfew and stick to it, understanding that clear boundaries for children are helpful and children often behave differently in the community when unaccompanied by adults.
24. Ensure my child understands what is acceptable behaviour on a school bus, and in the community.
25. Ensure my child gets plenty of sleep by removing their mobile phone or device from their room at least an hour before they go to bed. Blue screens from devices can disrupt the quality of sleep, which can affect a child's ability to consolidate their learning from the previous day as well as affect their ability to concentrate in lessons.
26. If my child cycles to school, I'll speak to them about using a helmet and safe cycling. Weaving in and out of traffic, riding without hands on handlebars, carrying other children on bikes and other unsafe practices can lead to a child being asked to find alternative means to get to and from school.
27. Ensure my child attends school detentions if/when set (break time, Lunch time and after school)
28. Ensure that the complaints procedure, and not social media, is used if I am unhappy with any element of the school's provision for my child.

SPIRIT

What SPIRIT means to us...

We STRIVE for excellence. We want the best for ourselves and our futures and work hard to get it. We learn actively, dream big and have ambition. We play the long game and aspire to do well. Our horizons are wide, and we are excited to explore. We respect and care for our environment. We never drop rubbish, and we are proud of our school.

We PERSEVERE, when the going gets difficult. We solve problems and have a 'can do' attitude. We focus and reflect on ourselves as learners to make progress. We manage our workloads at home and complete homework to a good standard. We value being mentally tough and resilient and can draw upon inner strength when we are being challenged.

INTEGRITY is important to us. Forming our own ideas and being honest about ourselves and having the confidence to do what is right. We listen carefully to other opinions and decide for ourselves. We respond to the register with 'yes miss' or 'yes sir' and always say 'please' and 'thank you'. We aim to make eye-contact, we speak with full sentences, and we use respectful and grammatically correct language. We listen and we follow instructions, we respect the adult's decision, and we never show defiance or walk away from staff.

We show RESPECT and care, including to other people or ideas we don't agree with. We greet others and smile to show that we value all individuals at our school. We respect the teacher's right to teach and a learner's right to learn. We are tactful and think before we act. We wear the uniform with pride and attend every day and show good time-keeping. We keep to the left on two-way corridors, follow the one-way system. We keep our hands to ourselves and we never run. We are respectful and calm so that we are safe and ready for learning.

We are INDEPENDENT, influenced by the good and have the strength of character to resist the bad. We self-start and motivate ourselves. When we achieve, we have made that happen ourselves. We don't use our mobile phones in school.

We show TOLERANCE and kindness towards others. Understanding difference and celebrating diversity is important to us, and what makes our school unique. We empathise with others and have a positive influence on those around us.
